

RULES:

Check with West Virginia Joyce Barnes, AD-email: joycebarnes@hotmail.com

SEEDINGS for 2003-04:

- 1. DELAWARE
- 2. WEST VIRGINIA
- 3. AUSTINE
- 4. ROCHESTER
- 5. ST MARYS<sub>T</sub>
- 6. MILL NECK MANOR
- 7. 47 A & E
- 8. SCRANTON

RE-ALIGNMENT ISSUE:

---

The coaches did not express any real strong opinions other than to say (some said) they would like to see the D-2 alignment remain as it is.

It is well known that Rhode Island is knocking on the door to return to Div-2.

The 2004 Div-2 Girls Tourney status may be/will be impacted by the following factors:

- 1. RI potential move back to D2
- 2. GBSD having/ not having a team
- 3. 47 A&E is not a traditional Tourney member
- 4. West Virginia's willingness to go beyond 8 teams
- 5. Seeding changes
- 6. Any Other school having roster problems

The Chairperson has spoken to Joyce Barnes and has received a reply pertaining to West Virginia's willingness to host more than 8 teams.

The answer is:

WVSD feels that "any team that qualifies in the ESDAA should have the opportunity if they choose, to play in the tournament. We (WVSD) will have no problems working with 8, 9 or 10 teams."

---